

Revival at Methodist Church

REV. H. C. MAITLAND

H. C. Maitland will begin a three or four weeks revival at the M. E. Church in this city next Sunday morning. A large chorus of singers will be in the choir loft to help sing the songs that are stirring Philadelphia. Mr. Maitland will preach the gospel in such a way that it will be a popular topic of conversation on the streets and in the family circle, not because it will be sensational, but it will be unusually strong, in that it will be the type of of gospel that cemented the early settlers to the old fashioned "Love Feast," and later to the "Little Brown Church In The Wildwood" and is to day reaching the hearts of the most exclusive people in our large cities and warming the life, the souls and the hearthstone in the most remote alleys in the congested centers of civilization. The Old Gospel has not lost its power, not even for Great Bend.

COLDS ARE OFTEN MOST SERIOUS—STOP POSSIBLE COMPLICATIONS.

The disregard of a cold has often brought many a regret. The fact of Sneezing, Coughing, or a Fever should be warning enough that your system needs immediate attention. Certainly Loss of Sleep is most serious. It is a warning given by nature. It is man's duty to himself to assist by doing his part. Dr. King's New Discovery is based on a scientific analysis of Colds. 50c. at your druggist. Buy a bottle today.

Martin Keenan was another Clarence township farmer, who while in town Saturday, called at the Democrat office and planked down the hard cash for a year's subscription to The Daily Democrat. Mart says the roads out that way are in pretty bad shape and that if a fellow was fixed for that means of transportation, the airship route would be the popular mode of travel.

Judge Charles Lobdell made a business trip to Kinsley Thursday. The Lischesky store is installing a Spotless Steam Sponger. This machine sponges either woolen or cotton cloth in a very short time. A machine such as this is rarely found outside of the large city stores.

WHAT FOLKS SAY.

Louis Cook, in writing from Kiowa to have The Daily Democrat sent to his address the coming year, states that the weather has been pretty severe down that way but that everything is all O. K. and prospects are good. They could stand a little more moisture but the wheat is still in good shape and is not suffering.

W. S. Bryant, of Route 3, Ellinwood, is another of the many good boosters for The Daily Democrat in that part of the county, and he backs up his faith in the new paper by sending in a check this week for a year's subscription in advance.

Will Suiter, for many years a resident of this city but now one of the big farmers of Macksville, remembers this office this week with a check for The Daily Democrat for a year in advance and sends best wishes for the success of the enterprise and also regards to all of his many old time friends in this community.

Even back in Woodrow Wilson's state they are boosting for The Daily Democrat. A letter received this week from Henry Herpers, of Herpers Bros., Manufacturers, reads as follows: "Enclosed you will find a check for 75 cents due and also the amount of a year's subscription in advance for your well conducted paper. I certainly wish you the success that your enterprise merits. Very cordially yours, Henry Herpers, Newark, N. J."

W. F. Rhoades writes from Dodge City to have The Daily Democrat sent to his address for the coming year and sends a generous check to get the thing started in good shape. Mr. Rhoades has been a member of the Democrat family for many years and the paper has become one of the household necessities at his place.

And Missouri is lined up in the booster column also. A letter received this week from Frank Wolf contained a check for a year's subscription to The Daily Democrat and the following cheerful message:

St. Joseph, Mo., 1-29-15.

Mr. John McMullen,

Dear Sir—

Your favor of the 25th received and your special offer is gladly accepted. Enclosed you will find money order for a year's subscription in advance to help a good thing along. The Democrat is my only means of getting the news of Barton county and as it fills the bill to my satisfaction, I shall remain one of its readers. Wishing you the best of success in your undertaking, I remain

Very truly yours,

FRANK WOLF.

Mr. Wolf was, for a number of years, a resident of Ellinwood, being employed as miller in the Wolf Mills at that place, but he is now holding down a responsible position as head chemist with one of the big milling concerns of St. Joseph and is getting along fine, and his many friends in Ellinwood and vicinity will be glad to hear of his success.

Frank Kroecker, of Pawnee Rock, this week had his name placed in the preferred column by sending a check for a year's subscription to The Daily Democrat.

O. T. Herthel, of Claflin, this week sends in his check for a year's subscription in advance to The Daily Democrat and sends his best wishes for the success of the new paper.

Charles Holepirek, of Timken, is another old Democrat's standby who is strong for The Daily Democrat as was evidenced by the generous check he sent to the office this week to get the new enterprise started off in good shape.

F. C. Tammien is another of the prosperous residents of the Albert neighborhood who wants to see The Daily Democrat a success and this week sent in a generous check to pay up his back subscription and a year in advance on the new daily.

John C. Bauer, of Pawnee Rock, is another liberal contributor this week towards getting The Daily Democrat started off in good shape. Mr. Bauer is one of the pioneers of the Pawnee Rock neighborhood and has been on the Democrat list for years and is likewise one of the pioneer subscribers of the Democrat and wants to see it continue to grow and prosper.

W. L. Jordan is another good booster in the Claflin community and this week sends in his check for a year's subscription to The Daily Democrat.

Fred Bunselmeyer, of Seward, is another of the south siders who generously remembered the printer man this week and sent in a check to pay up back subscription and a year in advance to The Daily Democrat.

Arthur B. Hayes writes to this office to have the address of his Democrat changed from Burdette to Bazine and encloses a check to pay for The Daily Democrat for one year. Arthur is in charge of the big McNow & Hayes ranch and is getting along nicely.

Richard Mooney, one of the real sons of Ireland, writes from Rt. 1, Ellinwood, to send The Daily Democrat to his address the coming year. Being about eleven-fifths Irish himself, we have always had a warm spot in our heart for Mr. Mooney and appreciate his support and encouragement.

The Otis State Bank is another out-of-town institution which will keep track of the Barton county events through the columns of the Democrat in the future, having sent in their check this week for a year's subscription to The Daily Democrat.

John Campbell writes from Rush Center to state that he is glad that the Democrat is changing to a daily paper and to wish the new publication all kinds of success. And he does his share to start things off in the right way by sending a generous check for his subscription.

J. H. Klepper, of Ellinwood, the right spirit by not only writing and wishing The Daily Democrat all kinds of success, but by enclosing the price of a year's subscription in advance as well. John knows that it takes money to start out an enterprise of this kind and he is inclined to do his full share towards helping the thing along.

Benj. P. Unruh, of Pawnee Rock writes and encloses check to have The Daily Democrat sent to his address the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Everett, of Heizer, are staying in the city at the present time in order that their little daughter may receive medical treatment. The expect to remain in town for a couple of months. Mr. Everett called at the Democrat office Wednesday morning and ordered The Daily Democrat sent to his address for the coming year.

Ben F. Brack writes from Olmitz this week and enclosed a check to pay for a year's subscription to The Daily Democrat, and wishes the new paper the best success in the world.

John Mooney is another Irishman living northeast of Ellinwood who this week sends in the cash for a year's subscription to The Daily Democrat and wishes the new publication success.

Sol Hoge, of Lewis, Kansas, is another formerly of Barton county who will keep track of the news of Barton county through the columns of The Daily Democrat for the next year.

It would take too much space to mention all of the good friends who have either come to the office in person or written, extending their best wishes for The Daily Democrat, and their more substantial assistance in the form of checks or cash. It is sufficient to say that the encouragement received so far exceeded the Democrat man's expectations and he is more than pleased with the outlook and he is certainly grateful for the most liberal support which the new enterprise is receiving. The paper shall in all ways try to merit the support of the people of the county and community and to be such a paper as will be to its betterment and growth in every way possible. To this end we ask the support and the co-operation of all the people who have stood by the Democrat so loyally in the past, and ask that they invite their friends to join with them as members of the big Democrat family.

HAS THE RIGHT RING

The following letter received from Charles Radenberg, of Claflin, the first of the week, is one of the kind that makes a newspaper man feel that life is worth the living, and is especially makes the Democrat man feel good, coming as it does from a man whom we esteem as highly as we do Mr. Radenberg. His letter is as follows:

Claflin, Kans., 1-29-15.

Mr. John McMullen,

Great Bend, Kansas.

Dear Sir—

I have been a reader of the Barton County Democrat for about twenty-five years, and I have noticed the various improvements the paper has undergone in that time, and especially since you took charge of it two years ago. I must confess the longer I read it the better I like it, and there is no question in my mind but that you will succeed in your new venture. The Daily Democrat, and enclosed you will find check to pay my subscription to the paper to January 1, 1917.

Very truly yours,
CHAS. RADENBERG.
